

Not An Airport Staff Member but Interested in the Airport Industry? Do We Have an Offer for You!!

Now you can receive a subscription to AAAE's bimonthly Airport Magazine and twice-weekly newsletter, Airport Report Today, for only $190 per year. Or you can subscribe to the newsletter separately for just $140 per year or the magazine for $50 per year. The newsletter is delivered by e-mail.

We realize that AAAE membership is invaluable to airport staff members and companies directly connected with the airport industry. Those who attend our meetings, use association staff resources, advertise or exhibit with AAAE rely on the many discounts, programs and services AAAE membership offers.

Some people, however, may only want the timely and in-depth information provided in our two publications. Airport Report Today contains congressional updates, stories on developments at FAA, DOT and other government agencies, positions open/business opportunities and other information vital to those associated with an airport.

Airport Magazine contains stories that focus on issues critical to the aviation industry, new product information, construction updates and more!

Fill out the form and send it with payment to AAAE at the address below.
